This 10-year-old girl can now add a Golden Ticket to her 263 trophies and medals. A born competitor, she is among the best in every sport she tries - from karate to gum-chewing. She holds the record for the longest time chewing one piece of gum: three months and counting! Her mother and manager believes she is a lock to win Wonka's special prize. As she puts it, "she is a WINNER!"

Write down: What does she look like? What kind person is she? Would you like her as a friend? What is she like with her parents? What does she like doing? What happens to her in the book?
