Fantastic Mr Fox - Chain of 20 Events

Look at the chain of events. Link them with SO ( forward) or BECAUSE ( backwards). Use 'they' in the second half, where the two sentences start with the same nouns (subject). Use 'them' in the second half, where the two sentences end with the same nouns (object). Examples: The farmers hate the foxes so they want to kill them.

The foxes get a lot of food from the farms because they dig long tunnels to them.

The jokes get a for of jood from the james because they dig fortg tarmets to the
1. It is hard to find food in the forest.	→	2. The foxes steal food from the farms.	→	3. The farmers hate the foxes.	→	4. The farmers want to kill the foxes.
						V
8. The farmers want to dig the foxes out.	+	7. The foxes are too afraid to come out.	←	6. Mr Fox loses his tail.	←	5. The farmers shoot into the foxes' hole.
•			,		,
9. The foxes dig deeper than the farmers.	→	10. The farmers use diggers to dig deeper.	→	11. The foxes dig deeper than the diggers.	→	12. Many men wait around the foxes' hill.
						Ψ
16. The foxes get a lot of food from the farms.	+	15. The foxes dig long tunnels to the farms.	←	14. The foxes run out of food.	←	13. The foxes cannot come out for many days.
Ψ
17. The foxes share their food with the animals.	→	18. The animals build a town underground.	→	19. The animals don't need to come out again.	→	20. The farmers just wait and wait.