

The Jungle Book

- in Present Simple tense -

Bagheera, the black panther finds a baby in the jungle.

The panther takes the baby to a wolf family.

The baby grows up with the wolves.

One day Shere Khan, the tiger comes back to the jungle.

The tiger hates men, and he wants to kill Mowgli, the boy.

Bagheera wants to take Mowgli back to the man village.

The panther and the boy sleep on a tree.

At night Mowgli meets Kaa, the snake.

Kaa sings a song and Mowgli goes to sleep.

Kaa wants to eat the sleeping boy.

Bagheera wakes up and saves Mowgli from the snake.

In the morning, Mowgli meets the elephants.

The boy and the little elephant become friends.

Mowgli is happy in the jungle and he wants to stay.

The boy says good bye to Bagheera and leaves.

Mowgli meets Baloo, the bear on his way.

Baloo and Mowgli become good friends.

The bear and the boy sing and play together.

Baloo falls asleep after all the fun with Mowgli.

The monkeys take Mowgli away to King Louis.

The monkey king wants to learn the secret of fire from Mowgli.

Bagheera and Baloo come to save the boy from the monkeys.

Bagheera asks Baloo to take the boy back to the man village.

When Baloo tells Mowgli about the village, the boy runs away.

Mowgli meets the friendly vultures, and they sing together.

Shere Khan, the tiger finds Mowgli and the vultures.

The tiger wants to eat the boy.

The bear comes to save the boy from the tiger.

A big storm breaks out and a lightning sets a tree on fire.

Mowgli ties a burning branch to the tiger's tail.

The tiger runs away with a burning tail.

They think that Baloo is dead after the fight.

The bear wakes up and everybody is very happy.

Mowgli sees a girl by the water. He wants to help her.

The boy goes after the girl into the village.

The bear and the panther go back to the jungle.