

What does the Roly-Poly Bird say to the other birds?

Make IMPERATIVE sentences. For example: Be quiet! OR Don't speak!

You don't need to use pronouns (you/he/she/it) in these sentences.

Start with a capital letter and end with an exclamation mark (!).

You can use these words to create imperatives (or add your own):

fly watch look stay land be mind sit come save keep go

don't not out on in up away here this the yourself

bird tree branches air glue trap attention warning death

high deadly careful sticky danger dangerous safe tricky
